

Four years have past since the Force has gone silent. While former Jedi vainly seek to regain their powers, rebels wage a futile fight against Hogrum Chalk's Galactic Federation.

At the center of this conflict are Kyra and Eli, rare apprentices gifted with the power of the Force who find themselves on opposite sides. Kyra seeks to spread justice and peace with her powers, while Eli wants nothing more than to keep the Force forever silent. But the future is not truly in their hands.

Cade Skywalker, Ania Solo, and Marasiah Fel are scattered across the galaxy, but events will draw the last Skywalkers together one more time to change the Force forever.
